Public Works Holds Annual Roadeo

The Public Works Department held its annual Roadeo competition on May 24, and several employees snagged trophies for their efforts in various events.

The competition, which was held in conjunction with the American Public Works Association's National Public Works Week May 20-26, showcases workmanship and skills that the Town's Public Works employees use every day to make Garner run smoothly and look neat and clean.

Staff from other Town departments also participated in some of the events. The winners of this year's events are as follows (pictured left to right in the accompanying photograph below):

Alonza Deans (nail driving)
Kenny Griffis (backhoe excavator)
Leo Cuello (blower ball)
Y'Hah Sui (best overall in events)
Warren Griffis and Assistant Town Manager Rodney Dickerson (truck and trailer backing)
Bryce Besley (Weedeater stringing)
Jonathan Creech (riding mower)
